RE: International Women's Day

Dear President,

By the present I would like to wish all of you happy International Women's Day, it shouldn't be just today but every day should be a woman's day and a man's day, equality is very important in today society not just in gender balance but all forms of equality and discrimination should be stopped.

Please take this moment to celebrate women in our lives and celebrate life, since life is fragile as we all know if lost many friends in the past.

Please use the graphics herewith enclosed and place this material on your National Federation's social media and website to promote this special day for WAKO.

I look forward to seeing you all later this year in occasion of one of next WAKO events and Championships.

Best regards,

Roy Baker
WAKO President
