- The WAKO Board, together with the Technical Committee must approve all safety equipment.
- Producers of safety equipment must get their products approved by WAKO.
- Safeties to be used in World and Continental Championships must be approved at least 3 months before the tournaments and all members must be duly informed.
- Only WAKO Approved manufacturer's equipment / safeties may be worn or used at WAKO World/ Continental A/B/C class Events.
- Safety equipment must be in accordance with international standards and directives for personal safety equipment

Article 2.3.1.1. Head guard

- Head guard is mandatory in all kickboxing fights in all disciplines except in musical forms.
- Head guard must be made from foam rubber or soft plastics or from compact sponge covered by leather. In fights, head guard which covers the face and head protection which reduces the field of vision is not allowed.
- Head guard must be suitable size in order to prevent removing or turning during the fight
- Head guard must cover the top of forehead, top of head, temples, the upper part of jawbone, ears and back of head.
- Head guard must not obstruct the kickboxers hearing.
- Parts for fixing the head protection cannot be metal or plastic buckle. Velcro for adjusting is allowed under chin and on back of head.

Article 2.3.1.2. Face mask

- In the categories of children and younger cadets face protection is mandatory for point fighting at all official WAKO championships, cups and tournaments.
- Face mask must be suitable size to head guard.
- Face mask is fixed to head guard with self-adhesive Velcro.

Article 2.3.1.3. Teeth protection

- Mouth-guards must be made from soft and pliable rubber-plastic or silicone material.
- Protection on only the upper teeth or on both upper and lower teeth is allowed.
- Mouth-guard must enable free breathing and must be adapted to the competitor's mouth configuration and must not protrude outside the mouth in any way.
- Mouth-guards can be of any colour.
- It is not allowed to use a mouth-guard over tooth correction apparatus (braces, retainers) unless a dentist doctor's certificate allows that.
- If the kickboxer has braces on lower teeth or on both upper and lower teeth they must have a mouth-guard on both upper and lower teeth
- Using tooth protection is mandatory for all fighting disciplines, in all age categories.

Article 2.3.1.4. Gloves

- In every kickboxing discipline is mandatory to use approved gloves.
- Two types of protective gloves are used at kickboxing competitions: point fighting gloves (open palm) and kickboxing gloves for disciplines: light contact, kick light, full contact, low kick and K1 style

Point fighting gloves

- In point fighting it is mandatory to use gloves with an open palm or open hand and with full cover of the first half of fingers, including the thumb. The gloves make it possible to open and close the hand.
- Gloves must cover hitting area on front and upper side of fist and edge of palm and must cover a minimum of 5 cm above wrist.
- Gloves must be made from soft and compact synthetic foam rubber material covered with original or artificial leather, or with other suitable material.

TOP TEN - OTHER EQUIPMENT

RING 7,8 x 7.8 m
SKU - 907-0780

TOP TEN - TROCELLEN - Official Supplier

WAKO has signed an Official Supplier Contract for tatamies for the period 2020-2023 with Budoland.

The contract stipulates that Budoland – company of Top Ten - is Tatami Official Supplier's trademark for the WAKO World and Continental Championships.

At WAKO World and Continental Championships only tatami pads from the Tatami Official Supplier – Top Ten can be used:

<https://www.budoland.com/en/tatami-mats-wako-944-4600>

The tatami pads to be used are made by Trocellen, approved by the WAKO Technical Committee, they meet all specifications and must have the WAKO trademark in two colours, red and blue.

The organizers with whom WAKO has signed contracts for the organization of the WAKO World and Continental Championships are obliged to ensure that tatamis from the official supplier are used at the Championships.

Budoland / Top Ten can separately arrange their participation in the A, B and C Class competitions and World Cups with the local organizers – promoters of tournaments.

Rights and obligations of WAKO Gold sponsors

The Gold Sponsor shall sponsor and support -pursuant to the terms set forth below –the following events organized by WAKO (hereinafter, the “WAKO Gold Events”):

All WAKO A-B-C Class tournaments and World Cups events as detailed from year to year in the WAKO Calendar available on WAKO’s website www.wakoweb.com and which in any event will be communicated by WAKO to the Gold Sponsor every year. Only the products of approved sponsors of WAKO (i.e. Platinum Sponsors and Gold Sponsors) may be used at the WAKO Gold Events as above.

WAKO undertakes that the Gold Sponsor's Products bearing the their Trademark shall be allowed to participate and be sold and /or promoted in any other WAKO Events organized under the sanctioning of WAKO for the term of duration of Agreement. It remains understood that in such WAKO Gold Events (different than the WAKO World Championships / Continental Championships Events reserved to the Platinum Sponsors), other companies (or sponsors, suppliers) will be allowed to participate and their products may be sold, promoted and / or used by the athletes provided that they previously get the “sanctioning and approval” of WAKO as an official Gold Sponsor. Exclusive rights are in fact granted to the Platinum Sponsors at the World and Continental Championship Events.

It is understood by the Gold Sponsor that at the relevant WAKO Gold Events, it is the responsibility of the Gold Sponsor to negotiate the terms and (economic) conditions with the WAKO A/B/C/ Class promoter(s) and World Cup promoter(s) directly as appropriate to get specific rights (i.e. sales booth, other direct sponsorship nationally).

The Gold Sponsor shall have also the exclusive right (alongside one other Gold / Platinum Sponsor) to have its merchandise used at WAKO Events (A/B/C class and World Cups) which include WAKO Trademark and/or WAKO logo (according to terms to be agreed with WAKO), provided that such products are previously approved by WAKO Technical Director. WAKO may have other sponsors at the WAKO Gold Events representing products not related to Kickboxing or the field of martial arts in general, without this entailing any breach of the present Agreement.

The Gold Sponsor will have access to all WAKO National markets without hindrance.

RDX Approved Equipment

KALIX SKIN

Durable. Pliable. Handstitched. This engineered combat shell uses multiple layers of laminated leather that serves as an added layer of padding over its shock-consolidating center.

Polygonal Fusion FOAM

Machine-made interior polygonal curvature mold aligns itself in between the padding for heavy shock absorption

QUICK-EZ

A high quality mid-width cuff is easy to apply and consists of injected foam for added protection.

EVA-LUTION™ SHEET

Advanced expanding foam absorbs and distributes impact evenly across surface

Polygonal Fusion FOAM

Machine-made interior polygonal curvature mold aligns itself in between the padding for heavy shock absorption

DenZo-Tron GRIP & SHEET

Highly compressed layer provides added durability & impact-resistance

HEPTA-FUSION

A signature technique that hand-stitches 7 panels of leather to form a jacket fused together using our proprietary Kalix Skin. Built to combat temperature fluctuations and withstands wear and tear for countless sessions.
