

RESULT OF THE BIGGEST KICKBOXING EVENT IN AMERICA

The event was broadcasted by Bandsports and Esporte Interativo

São Paulo, March 26th., 2013.

The first edition of WGP Kickboxing of the year that happened at march 23 in Gymnasium Milton Feijao, in Sao Caetano do Sul, Sao Paulo, was a very interesting event, since it's production up to the fights.

The event had very powerful fighters, and we had 4 knockouts in the night to demonstrate that.

A very enthusiastic public went to the gymnasium, they were thrilled and very concentrated on each of the fighters. But they paid much attention to the combat between Felipe Micheletti and Rogelio Ortiz from Argentina, a fight that gave Felipe the victory by Knockout.

But not only the present public could enjoy the fights, many people watched the TV Broadcast from Bandsport and Esporte Interativo. And many could watch it live by UOL Esportes on the internet.

Every details from the fights were caught by television, and the commentaries were made by the President from Confederacao Brasileira de Kickboxing and Panamerican Kickboxing Confederation, Master Paulo Zorello, who also gave excellent highlights to the fights.

Another very important person present at the event was the President of SUPERKOMBAT®, Mr. Eduard Irimia, who gave the Trophy to the winner of the +94 kg GP.

The so long waited rematch from Ricardo Soneca and Clei Silva had a stunning KO on the first round, making Ricardo Soneca the winner.

The fight between Alex Pereira and Cesar Almeida was tough. Each of them showed great technical and physical levels, it was another tough fight that only decided the winner after the referees decisions, Alex Pereira was the winner. He recognized the high level of his opponent.

The finalists of the +94 kg GP were Edson Lima and Felipe Micheletti. Felipe as the winner by split decision, and he got the Trophy of the GP from the hands of Mr. Eduard Irimia, the President of SUPERKOMBAT®.

The event finished with the fight of the brazilian Thiago Michel and the romanian Miodrag Olar, who represented SUPERKOMBAT®.

Miodrag Olar showed a great technical level and experience, but Thiago Michel showed the reason why he is undefeated. Good combinations and precise blows, good management of distance and great kicks made this fight what it's title really announced: A Super Fight

With no doubt, the winner was the brazilian Thiago Michel.
