REGULATIONS

ON VISA PAYMENT (IF NEEDED) AT THE TEMPORARY CONSULAR OFFICE AT THE AIRPORT

The Directorate of the World Combat Games 2013 draws up accreditation certificates for the participants of the competitions for visa-free entry to the territory of the Russian Federation.

Personal information of the Games participant is filled by participants themselves into the accreditation certificate on the basis of data, available in the registration database. If, on arrival to the territory of the Russian Federation, the data, specified in the accreditation certificate, does not match the data into the Passport, presented at passport control at the border entry point of the Russian Federation, and participant of the Games will be denied to entry into the territory of the Russian Federation by accreditation certificate, the participant's entry will be made by a one-time humanitarian visa, which will be issued at the consular office at the airport of the Russian Federation. Issuance of such a visa shall be paid. Costs will be covered by the participant of the Games. The cost of visa issuance is 100 US dollars. The same procedure will be applied to those persons, who lost, forgot or made his accreditation certificate unsuitable.

If personal information (name, date of birth, gender, nationality, passport number) fully match the data, entered into registration system by participant, and an error at accreditation certificate is made due to the fault of WCG 2013 Directorate, visa fee at the airport shall be paid by the Directorate.

The participant who has not received the status of LOC Submitted till 15th of September (due the late registration, incorrect data, incorrect photos or scanned copies of passport) will be forced to go to a competition by invitation visa, paid his own expense. Refunds are not provided by the World Combat Games 2013 Directorate.
