WAKO PRESIDENT NEWSLETTER

Dear WAKO members,

After a successful WAKO Board meeting in Rimini I inform you about the following subjects;

Policies and Guidelines

We have updated our section about Policies and Guidelines on WAKO website. It is important for you to be aware of them and follow them in order for us to improve our work and to create uniformity in what we do.

One new addition is establishment of Kickboxing Oaths that we will implement as a standard to lift the importance of fair play and high moral in our competitions.

You can find all information HERE.

Integrity e-learning

We have sent out a separate letter with information about our Integrity e-learning modules. Please register and complete this program – athletes, referees, coaches and officials.

You can find all information HERE.

Just in case, you can log on the e-learning by clicking HERE.

WORLD ASSOCIATION OF KICKBOXING ORGANIZATIONS

Cooperation International Fair Play Committee

We have a good cooperation with CIFFP, an organization recognized by IOC and we will have educational exercises during our next Cadets and Juniors World Championships in Dublin.

We will send out information about this subject separately.

You can find all information HERE.

Fair Play Award

We have established a new Fair Play Award that we will announce separately.

You can also find all information HERE.

WAKO Whistleblower Policy

Within the focus on Integrity we also inform you that WAKO has decided and implemented a Whistleblower policy, which is established just for the reason to act preventive and to remove undesirable elements and behavior, to ensure confidentiality in the process of being informed by individuals. Please see this policy under our section on WAKO web under "Policies" section on the main menu.

You can find all information HERE.

WAKO By-Laws

A new By-Laws has been decided that more correctly show the new committees and their mandate. Not to say, the procedure for election of the Athlete Committee for which will be done at the Cadets and Juniors World Championships in Dublin, Ireland.

More information about WAKO development will follow during the summer and as a runner up to our next Cadets and Junior World Championships.
