INVITATION LETTER by Local Organizing Committee Mr. João Diogo

Dear WAKO friends,

Almost two decades since last event, Portugal is delighted and thrilled to open the arms to organize the WAKO Senior and Masters World Championship. Particularly for me, one of many who stepped up in the ring in that tournament, in Guimarães, delightfully presented by the former WAKO President Ennio Falsoni, is an honor and a big responsibility to take part in the organization of this edition.

The challenge is huge and we are all highly motivated to go along with the organization of one of the most important tournaments in the world. Especially on this time, with still difficult winds of war and a post-pandemic hangover, the world is different and the motto is the uniqueness of the WAKO signature, "One WAKO, One Champion".

On this occasion, we will receive you all in the sunny side of Portugal. Albufeira is one of the most iconic rivieras in the world, here you can have a little taste of Portugal, of our history and traditions, our food and culture.

When we are all dealing with the good winds of change in Portugal and the reborn of our sports which is growing again, we will all give you our most warm welcome. We have a big team very experienced in events and we will give you all a good time to remember.

We hope to see you soon!

INVITATION LETTER by WAKO Board Member Mr. Carlos Ramjanali

My dear WAKO family,

Is with great emotion and joy that Portugal is once again in the promotion of WAKO Big events. We are all thrilled with all the unstinting trust and recognition about what we all did in the past, more than 20 years ago, when we started together this journey of the WAKO international events. I'm one of that kind, since the beginning.

After the pandemic, with all the challenges we had during that time, to continuously supporting our WAKO family members and beloved sport, and still growing and searching our Olympic Dream, I particularly had an extra challenge with my beautiful country: help this new generation to find their way up and bring back our national warriors spirit, both in the ring and in the organization of events like this one.

The well said WAKO motto, from our president, Mr. Roy Baker, "ONE WAKO, ONE CHAMPION", unified all of us in our mission of bringing our sport higher than ever.

I'm delighted and humbled to receive you all in Albufeira for this event, co-hosted with the City Council of Albufeira, I'm sure it will be memorable for all of us. The last time we had a competition like this in Portugal, the opening speech was held by my beloved friend and mentor, our WAKO Honorary President Ennio Falsoni. I will always keep him in my mind when the bell ring.

May you all have a good competition and an excellent stay in Portugal.

Carlos Ramjanali
WAKO IF Board Member

INVITATION LETTER by Vice President of the Municipality of Albufeira Mr. Cristiano Cabrita

Dear Friends,

It is with great pride that the Municipality of Albufeira welcomes all participants of the WAKO Senior World Championship.

In line with what has happened in previous years, Albufeira is once again on the route of major international competitions. The work we have carried out over the years works, both in improving our infrastructure, access and sports facilities, and in preparing our staff.

Our mission to promote sport in the municipality is not seasonal and being able to attract and co-organize events with the history and dimension of this championship is a source of pride for all of us. We have more than three thousand federated athletes in the municipality, we look at sport as an integrating tool, with ethics, which fights asymmetries and differences.

Albufeira values sport and is valued for what events like this one bring to the municipality. Our path to becoming the European City of Sport in 2026 is through the constant support and promotion of sport that we have carried out, promoting the practice of sport locally and hosting major international events, such as this Kickboxing World Championship.

As co-organizers of this edition of the WAKO Kickboxing World Championship, we can only wish all participants a combative journey and an excellent stay with us.

O Vice-Presidente

Doutor Cristiano Cabrita

Albufeira, land of emotions

António Lourenço

Inhabited since prehistoric times, this was an important fishing port according to evidence dating back to the Neolithic and Bronze Age. Through here passed many people ...

The Romans, who named it Baltum and later the Muslims, who gave it the name of Al-buhera or "castle of the sea", which gave origin to the current name of the city. After five centuries of Islamic rule it was finally taken by Afonso III in 1249, who donated it to the Order of Aviz. On the 20th of August of 1504 the charter-of-rights was given to the town of Albufeira by King Manuel I. In 1755 with the earthquake of the 1st of November a giant wave destroyed almost the whole town. Recovered from the earthquake, Albufeira would suffer another disaster in 1833, during the civil war between absolutists and liberals: the absolutist guerrilla surrounded the village, causing a wildfire that resulted in the deaths of 174 of its inhabitants.

From mid 19th century, Albufeira was relaunched as an important fishing centre, recording a great economic progress, which intensified at the beginning of the 20th century with the increase of the export of fish and dried fruits and the creation of several factories.

Between the 30's and 60's of the 20th century it lived times of decadence with the bankruptcy of ship-owners and factories. Many houses and boats were abandoned and the number of inhabitants decreased dramatically.

From the mid 60's, Albufeira awakened the interest of national tourists first and then of British tourists, causing a real tourism boom and giving new breath to the council's economy. It is currently one of the major domestic tourist destinations, concentrating the biggest accommodation supply, is often nicknamed the "Capital of Tourism".

Located on the Igreja Nova Street, the Parish Church of Albufeira was built in the 18th century and replaced the old parish Church (originally a mosque) which collapsed in the earthquake of 1755. This church of only one aisle is neoclassic and has 4 side chapels, a baptismal chapel, the choir, two pulpits and two lateral rooms. On the main altar the highlight is the beautiful work of the Albufeira-born painter Samora Barros (20th century), which serves as a background for the image of the patron saint of Albufeira, Our Lady of Conception.

At the top of the arch of the main door we can find the cross of Aviz representative of the religious and military order to which Albufeira belonged.

Misericórdia (Mercy) Chapel On the Henrique Calado Street, we can find the Chapel of Mercy, also known as the Chapel of the Castle's Mayors, classified as a building of Municipal Interest. Used afterwards as the chapel of the Castle's Mayors. In 1499, became part of the Misericórdia. It was partially destroyed by the 1755 earthquake and was subsequently recovered. It still preserves the Gothic portal, the triumphal arch and the apse. Inside keeps a carved altarpiece, representative of the image of Our Lady of Visitation and of the Dead Lord, as well as the tomb of Rui Dias, pretended Mayor of the Castle

Clock Tower Considered one of the symbols of the city, it is certainly a place to visit. Located on the Bernardino Sousa Street, this ancient Muslim tower is incorporated in the old jail building.

Already in the 19th century, an original iron crown was placed on the top, where the bell of hours can be found.

This castle is one of those featured in the flag of Portugal. It was conquered from the Moors by Paio Peres Correia, probably in 1242 and deactivated in 1858. Early in the 16th century, with the transfer of the town inside the walls to the current village of Paderne, it becomes clear its state of neglect and later with the 1755 earthquake, suffers partial collapse of the walls and watchtower.

Classified as a Building of Public Interest since 1971, the Castle was studied with the intent of its recovery and of classification of the surrounding areas of the Quarteira River as protected landscape area. This study included the identification of various areas of archaeological and ethnographic interest, as well as the characterization of the existing fauna and flora. Despite successive restorations, its conservation status is degraded and nowadays has only a few sections of wall, as well as the entrance tower and main walls of its hermitage.

The municipality of Albufeira has 25 beaches with the most diverse morphologies, holding the largest number of blue flags nationwide. Explore and discover beaches of unique beauty!

Penedo Beach - Situated in the full front of the urban city, the beach is accessed by a tunnel dug in the cliff and connects it to the 5 de Outubro Street. At the top of the cliff, you can also go down to the sand by a stone stair or by lift, which exist from the terrace Dr. Frutuoso da Silva. The beach is about 1 kilometer long and is connect to the Fishermen's Beach.

Fishermen's beach

Surrounded by a cliff on east and an amphitheater of white houses on the north and west, the beach is accessed through the city downtown, through the 25 de Abril Avenue. The name of this beach has its origin in many fishing boats that stayed here before and that recently moved to the Fishing Harbour. In the afternoon is often stage for a set of foot volley. Existing services in recreation area:

Tours, jet skiing, pedal boats, ski shark floats, parachute and kayak.
