MESSAGE

Dear WAKO India

It brings me great pleasure to witness the announcement of the upcoming 3rd WAKO India Open International Kickboxing Tournament, scheduled to take place in New Delhi from the 7th to 11th of February, 2024. It is truly remarkable to witness the vast amount of work and activity taking place in Asia presently. Over the past few years, India has emerged as a prominent hub of such activity under the adept leadership of its president, Mr. Santosh K. Agrawal. Please continue with all the hard work you are doing. I eagerly anticipate seeing you very soon. It's important to remember that there is only #oneWAKOandonechampion.

Roy Baker
President - WAKO IF

It brings me great joy to cordially invite and welcome all of you to the esteemed 3rd WAKO India Open International Kickboxing Tournament, which will be taking place in New Delhi. After the successful conclusion of the 2nd Indian Open Championship in 2022, where WAKO India collaborated and achieved a significant milestone in the history of Kickboxing in India. Regrettably, due to the prevailing pandemic situation in 2021, we were unable to proceed with the scheduled show. However, as circumstances have improved and evolved, we are pleased to announce our commitment to organizing the WAKO India International event next year. This event will encompass all divisions and styles, including both Ring and Tatami events. WAKO India is making every effort to promote kickboxing at the world level. I am grateful to the Hon'ble President of WAKO (IF), Mr. Roy Baker and WAKO family for the perpetual support and guidance. WAKO India is making dedicated efforts to promote the sport of kickboxing on a global scale. I would like to express my gratitude towards Mr. Roy Baker, the esteemed President of WAKO (IF), and the entire WAKO family for their unwavering support and valuable guidance.

The purpose of the event is to bring together members of the WAKO Family from all over the world and partake in a relaxing journey with us. India, known for its kindness, is a country where our team excels in providing exceptional hospitality to our guests. We are confident that our plan will be highly appreciated by you, and we hope that you can contribute to the growth of kickboxing in India. We wish you all the best and encourage you to strive for excellence in your endeavours.

Santosh K Agrawal

WELCOME TO INDIA

The Red Fort is a historical fort in the centre of Delhi, India. It was built by the Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in the 17th century and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Red Fort is made of red sandstone and is one of the most iconic buildings in India. It is a symbol of Mughal power and opulence. The fort is surrounded by a moat and has a high wall with 11 gates.

Inside the fort, there are many palaces, gardens, and mosques. Some of the most popular attractions include the Diwan-i-Am (Hall of Public Audience), the Diwan-i-Khas (Hall of Private Audience), the Moti Masjid (Pearl Mosque), and the Naubat Khana (Drum House).

People visit the Red Fort for a variety of reasons. Some come to learn about Indian history and culture. Others come to admire the fort's architecture and beauty. Still others come to experience the lively atmosphere and to enjoy the many cultural events that are held at the fort throughout the year.

The Lotus Temple is a Bahá'í House of Worship located in New Delhi, India. It is one of the most iconic and visited buildings in India. The temple is open to people of all faiths and is a place for worship, meditation, and reflection.

The Lotus Temple is shaped like a lotus flower, with 27 petals made of white marble. The petals are arranged in three clusters of nine petals each. The central cluster is the highest, and the other two clusters are slightly lower. The interior of the temple is a single large hall with no pillars or other obstructions. The hall is surrounded by 27 marble-clad walls, which are curved to match the shape of the petals. The hall can accommodate up to 2,500 people. The Lotus Temple is a beautiful and serene place. It is a symbol of peace, unity, and harmony.

The Qutub Minar is a 73-meter-tall minaret in Delhi, India. It was built in the 12th century and is the tallest brick minaret in the world. The minaret is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Qutub Minar was built by Qutb-ud-din Aibak, the first Muslim ruler of Delhi. The minaret was originally intended to be a victory tower, but it was never completed.

The Qutub Minar is made of red sandstone and marble. It is decorated with intricate carvings and calligraphy. The minaret has five stories, each of which is marked by a projecting balcony. People visit the Qutub Minar for a variety of reasons. Some come to learn about Indian history and culture. Others come to admire the minaret's architecture and beauty. Still others come to experience the peaceful atmosphere and to enjoy the views of Delhi from the top of the minaret.
