WAKO PRO

INVITATION LETTER by WAKO IF President Mr. Roy Baker

Dear Presidents, Dear friends, I am pleased to see all of you in the International Kickboxing Tournament "WORLD CUP" in Tashkent, the capital of Uzbekistan.

Sport has an important role to play on this word in fostering, International relations build on empathy, understanding, democracy, transparency and respect for each other. This is what the WAKO family stands for.

There are not only the most developed Kickboxing schools, but also emerging new schools as well as the new Kickboxing stars will also participate in this major competition. In particular, here are the Kickboxing Athletes of Uzbekistan, who actively have been participated in the International competitions.

Aybek Narmetov, chairman of the Kickboxing Association of Uzbekistan, has a special role in the development of Uzbekistan Kickboxing. Because the ranks of Kickboxing enthusiasts have increased dramatically in the next few years in Uzbekistan. It is worthy of admiration that not only Professional Athletes, but also adolescents and even children are regularly engaged in Kickboxing, conditions are created for this in this country and the activities of "Kickboxing Centers" are established and growing.

I am sure that the championship "WORLD CUP" will be rich in talent and unforgettable matches, like our other competitions in the world. All our Athletes have the opportunity to work out and contribute to the opening of another great page on Kickboxing! I would like to congratulate Aybek Narmetov, the chairman of Kickboxing Association of Uzbekistan with this International Kickboxing Tournament WORLD CUP and ongoing success of WAKO Uzbekistan.

I look forward to seeing you and your Athletes at WORLD CUP. We should always keep in mind that "One WAKO One Champion".

Roy Baker,
WAKO President

WELCOME TO UZBEKISTAN

Bukhara (Uzb. Buxoro) is one of the oldest cities in Central Asia, the administrative center of the Bukhara region of Uzbekistan; architectural and historical-cultural zapovednik, sokhranivshii unique pamyatniki zodchestva all historical epoch, nachinaya s IX veka. V razvitoe srednevekovoe ona byla focussing culture, science and Muslim theology of the entire Middle and Middle East.

Bukhara is a unique city in Central Asia, whose pre- and early Islamic history was described in detail in the well-known work Narshahi, istorika, living in the 10th century.

Bukhara was the capital of the Bukhara Khanate, the capital of the Timurid Empire, and the capital of various ruling dynasties, the Bukhara People's Soviet Republic and the Uzbek SSR.

Samarkand (Uzbek: Samarqand) is the third most populous city in Uzbekistan, the administrative center of the Samarkand region.

The total area of the city is 123.82 km². The population as of January 1, 2023 was 573.2 thousand; in 2022, it was planned to expand the city's territory (it would have been 284.15 km²) and increase its population due to suburban areas. At the end of December 2022, the President of Uzbekistan announced that as soon as the population of Samarkand approaches one million, the city will be separated from the Samarkand region and will receive the status of a city of republican subordination, which previously only had the capital of Uzbekistan, Tashkent.

The city is located at an altitude of about 720 meters above sea level. The historical center of the city is the Registan square and ensemble.

In 2001, the city and its historical architectural and archaeological monuments were included in the UNESCO World Heritage List under the title "Samarkand - Crossroads of Cultures".

WELCOME TO UZBEKISTAN

Khiva (Uzbek: Xiva) is a city in the Khorezm region of Uzbekistan, the administrative center of the Khiva region. The last capital of Khorezm. In 1997, Khiva celebrated its 2500th anniversary.

Surrounded by powerful walls, the historical inner city of Khiva - the pearl of the Khorezm oasis - has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

A later legend about the founding of the city tells that it grew up around the well of Heivak, the water from which had an amazing taste, and the well was dug by order of Shem, the son of the biblical Noah. This well can still be seen today in the old quarter of Khiva, Ichan-Kale.

Khiva was one of the cities of ancient Khorezm, which was a large state located in the west of Central Asia, south of the Aral Sea.

Shakhristabz (Uzbek: Shahrisabz) is a city in the Kashkadarya region (viloyat) of Uzbekistan. One of the oldest cities in Central Asia until the 16th century, known as Kesh. Shakhristabz is located between the tributaries of the Kashkadarya Oksuv river in the north and Tankhazdarya in the south. The population as of January 1, 2014 is 100.3 thousand inhabitants, in 1991 - 53 thousand inhabitants. The majority of the population are Uzbeks. There is an airport and a railway station called Kitab, which in 1959 ceased to be an independent unit of the Shakhristabz region and became part of the city of Shakhristabz. The name of the city Shakhristabz comes from the Persian (shahr) "city" and (sabz) "green" and is literally translated as "Green City", "Zelenograd".

This name stuck to the city starting from the 15th century. Until the 15th century, the city was known under the Sogdian name Kesh (Sogdian Koš) with the meaning "dwelling, house, settlement." In "Babur-Nama" (XV - early XVI centuries), along with the name Kesh, Shakhristabz was also used.

WELCOME TO UZBEKISTAN

Tashkent (Uzbek Toshkent, Tashkent) is the capital and largest city of Uzbekistan, a city of republican subordination. The largest city in Central Asia by population (more than 3 million people), the center of the Tashkent urban agglomeration, the most important political, economic, cultural and scientific center of the country, as well as an aviation, railway and automobile hub. Located in the northeast of the country, near the border with Kazakhstan.

Tashkent is the third city in the CIS in terms of population. It is one of the oldest cities in Central Asia - in 2009, the official celebration of the 2200th anniversary of the city was held.

State authorities, foreign embassies, and the headquarters of most of the largest Uzbek commercial organizations and public associations are located in Tashkent.

Tashkent City (International Business Center "Tashkent City", IBC "Tashkent City"; Uzbek: "Tashkent City" xalqaro biznes markazi, "Tashkent City" IBC) is a business center under construction in Tashkent. Located in the Shaykhantaxur district, between Alisher Navoi Avenue, Olmazor and Furkata streets and Islam Karimov Avenue.

Within the framework of the Tashkent City IBC, a business activity zone is being created that will unite business, residential apartments and leisure. The managing company of the Tashkent

City IDC project is the Tashkent City Directorate. Construction is being carried out on the site of the demolished mahallas (neighborhoods) of Olmazor and Ukchi, on a territory with a total area of 80 hectares. This is the largest one-time construction project in Uzbekistan. The construction of the project is carried out with financial investments from private investors.

The commercial concept of the project was developed by the American company Cushman & Wakefield. Of the 8 projects for the future business center, the concept proposed by the Turkish architectural company Tabanlıoğlu Architects was chosen.
